Chili Cook-off Official Rules

1. Meat may be pre-cooked, but not pre-seasoned in any form. No other ingredients are to be chopped or added prior to commencement of official cook-off.
2. Regular commercial chili powder is permissible, but complete commercial chili mixes are not permitted.
3. Each team will provide all ingredients, utensils, and accessories necessary to cook chili. This includes cook stoves, and fuel.
4. Each head chef will be responsible for cooking not less than one (1) gallon of chili and turning in one (1) cup of chili for judging. Judging cups will be supplied.
5. Cooking will take place at VFW Post 581 from 9:00 a.m. to 2 p.m. at which time samples will be gathered for judging.
6. At no time should you leave cooking chili unattended (for safety reasons).
7. Each contestant will be assigned a contestant number by the Chief Judge. This number will be used throughout the contest.
8. Judging will take place starting at 2 p.m.
9. All cooking must be done in a sanitary manner. Conditions are subject to inspection by the Chief Judge. Failure to comply is subject to disqualification of the team.
